Central Savannah
River Area

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 15, 2026

Community Grants Fund awards over $735,000 to 59 Nonprofits in the CSRA.

The Board of Directors of the Community Foundation for the Central Savannah River Area (CSRA) is pleased to announce a record-breaking year for the Foundation's Community Grants Program. Grants totaling more than $735,000 were awarded to support the impactful work of 59 nonprofit organizations serving Richmond, Columbia, Burke, and McDuffie counties in Georgia and Aiken and Edgefield counties in South Carolina.

Grant awards support arts, cultural, and historical organizations, improve health and protect the environment, provide enrichment and educational opportunities to children, youth, and adults, and help grow program services for people in need.

Since 1996, the Masters Tournament, community partners, and individual donors have chosen to give generously to the Community Foundation Endowment. Through careful stewardship and investment, the Community Foundation grows these contributed funds, which, over time, has almost doubled the size of the endowment. This commitment and collaboration has allowed the Community Foundation to grant resources for almost three decades through its Community Grants program, expanding support for organizations making a meaningful difference and enhancing the long-term strength of our region.

"This legacy program of the Community Foundation has been awarding grants for almost 30 years, totaling over 12 million dollars to hundreds of nonprofits across the CSRA. Over that time, the program has grown and evolved, but still a few things remain steadfast," says Shell Berry, President and CEO, "The process is broad and allows us to hear directly from the nonprofits in our area regarding the most pressing needs in our community. That connection to listening to community voices continues through the perspective of nearly 200 volunteers who review the grant applications, conduct site visits, and ultimately decide which programs and services should receive this year's funding."

The 2026 Community Grant Award recipients are as follows:

Arts History & Culture

Nonprofit arts organizations strengthen our community by preserving identity, fostering creativity, and creating spaces for shared expression and dialogue. They contribute to economic vitality through tourism and local spending while improving the quality of life and social cohesion. Just as importantly, they make arts and culture accessible to our neighbors who might otherwise be excluded. We are proud to support the following organizations in this category:

Aiken Civic Orchestra

This grant will enable more community members to experience live orchestral performances and music education, enriching cultural life and inspiring creativity in Aiken.

Augusta Jewish Museum

Resources will allow the museum to preserve Jewish history and culture while reaching broader audiences with educational programming that fosters understanding and connection.

Augusta Westobou Festival

This funding will strengthen Augusta's cultural economy by attracting visitors, engaging artists, and providing accessible contemporary arts experiences for the community.

ENOPION Theatre Company

These funds will expand youth and community theater programs, giving participants creative outlets, arts education, and opportunities to develop confidence and teamwork.
